DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1898.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1903.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

JUST A PASSENGER.
"This world it keeps a-spinning"
As fast as it can go;
We wonder what it's rushing to,
But no one seems to know.
A-buzzin' out so fine,
De stahs dey is de signal lamps
A-gleamin' 'long de line.
I ain't axin' questions
'Bout how de train is run;
I's simply gwinter stick until
My little journey's done.
It ain't no use to worry,
Whatever may betide—
I's only jes' a passenger,
An' mighty glad to ride.

—Washington Star.

"The Devil's Auction," at the Opera-house last evening was, as on its former appearance here, a very fine production and much appreciated. Many new features are with the show this season, which add to its merits. The scenery carried by the company is magnificent, being among the handsomest ever seen on the stage of Washington Opera-house.

There seems to have been an anti-election arrangement between those representing the white ticket and those of the blue, whereby M. P. Marsh was to be the Secretary of the former and Hal C. Curran of the latter in the event of their success at the polls. Both tickets had selected good men for the position and whoever won the place was sure of being occupied by a competent man. Now that the Blues have won we suppose that Mr. Curran will be the Secretary and the honor could not be more honorably bestowed than in the selection of this competent and worthy young man for the place.

A Good Name.

From personal experience I testify that DeWitt's Little Early Risers are unequalled as a liver pill. They are rightly named because they give strength and energy and on their work with ease.—W. T. Easton, Boerne, Tex. Thousands of people are using these tiny little pills in preference to all others, because they are so pleasant and effectual. They cure biliousness, torpid liver, jaundice, sick headache, constipation, etc. They do not purge or weaken, but cleanse and strengthen. Sold by J. Jas. Wood & Son, Druggists.

MR. HARRY BERESFORD.

There are many delightful bits in "The Professor's Love Story," J. M. Barrie's wonderful play in which Harry Beresford will appear here soon, which might have been taken out of the real life of this clever artist. The play is by the author of "The Little Minister," in which Maude Adams starred so many years. The same writer is also responsible for "The Admirable Crichton," which John Hare so successfully produced in London. Mr. Barrie was also the author of "Quality Street," Maude Adams's latest success, and who will star again in "Little Mary," the latest play from this gifted writer's pen.
